

Behavioral Work Can Work On

- Behaviors related to Autism
- Behaviors related to ADD or ADHD
- Verbal aggression
- Physical aggression
- Off task behavior
- Defiance
- Behaviors related to developmental disability
- Find support to succeed
- Access helpful services in the community
- Build and maintain relationships
- Advocate for yourself while taking personal responsibility.
- Based on the values of human rights, independence, choice, and social inclusion.
- Designed to enable the client to direct their own services and supports, rather than attempting to fit within service system.
- Assists the client and their families to build capacities and capabilities.
- Comprehensive planning based on what the recipient wants and needs including children/youth, resulting in better outcomes for that individual and their family.
- Help the client determine worthwhile goals.
- Assist them in discovering their ability to attain their goals.
- Relationships are initiated and nurtured to ensure a person-centered approach to service implementation.
- And more...

For Who is Behavioral Work?

For persons with mental health care needs, Behavioral Work is a place for hope. From rehabilitating persons in crisis to helping teens deal with depressive disorders, Behavioral Work has evolved into one of the most comprehensive health care providers in Central Florida.

Behavioral Work offers a rich array of mental health services like Behavior Analysis, Targeted Case Management, Counseling, Psychiatric Evaluation and a variety of approaches for families wanting to improve their mental well-being.

Behavioral Work commitment to quality is reflected in every aspect of care an individual receives.

Call to learn how Behavioral Work services can help you and those you love

Servicing the following counties:

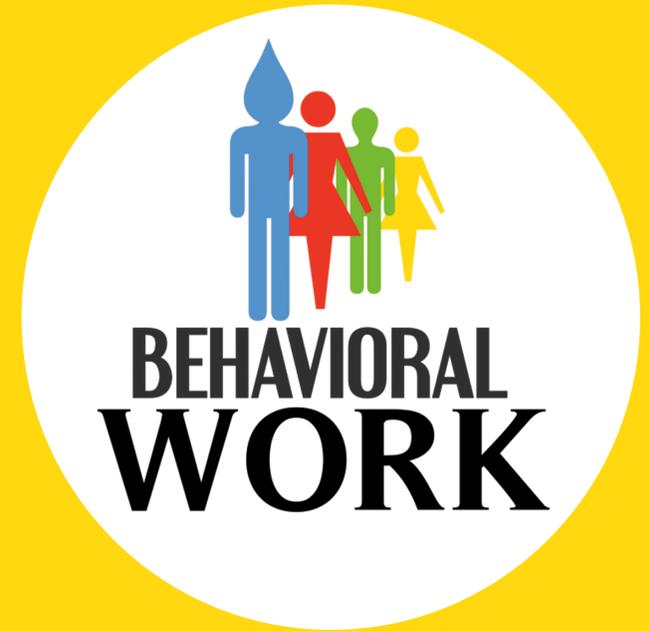

Osceola, Polk, Orange, Lake,
Seminole & Brevard

(407) 329-3464

Help@behavioralwork.com or visit us at

www.BehavioralWork.com

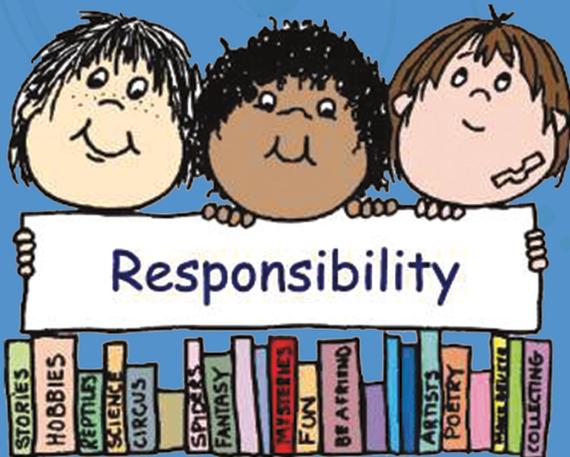

Advocating

Independence

Mental Health Services

- Behavior Analysis
- Targeted Case Management
- Counseling Services

www.BehavioralWork.com